essay
In my student consulting ^{essay} topic, I would like to describe one of my daily tasks. During my ^{work} day as a bank advisor, I have to open a lot of bank accounts, also for foreigners. ^{clients} In the ~~when~~ course of the consulting ^{them}, I have to explain our ATM, our online banking account and further ^{details} stuff. Because it's one of my main tasks, I think it would be interesting. 😊

Tutor feedback

I agree, Lennard, that this should be interesting, and it's a good choice of topic.
Think about how you can conclude the essay interestingly. Perhaps you can suggest alternative or improved ways of advising new clients.
